

Families at Home
Reeti Gadekar
HarperCollins India
Rs 295

A suicide in an upper class, politically connected business family is exactly the kind of case that additional commissioner of police Nikhil Juneja likes to take on. Easy contacts, easy money and an easy conscience. But things are not always what they seem. The death turns into a murder, the contacts onerous and his conscience heavy. Like India in the mid-1990s, Juneja can't decide which way to go. Set in chaotic, corrupt and yet charming Delhi, this debut novel is about the banality of justice sought and deflected.

